

Northeast Gas Association's

Regional Market Trends Forum

May 15, 2025
Renaissance Albany Hotel
Albany, NY

8:00 a.m. — Registration & Continental Breakfast

9:00 a.m. — Welcome & Opening Remarks

José Costa, President & CEO, Northeast Gas Association

SESSION 1— 9:10 a.m.

Keynote Session — Charles Dickerson—President & CEO, NPCC

A review of the NPCC's Recent Gas/Electric System Study

NPCC President & CEO Charles Dickerson will provide insights in to the NPCC's January 2025 study, examining New York and New England gas supply and pipeline constraints for extreme and protracted winter events across the next decade.

SESSION 2— 10:10 a.m.

Keynote Session — Amy Andryszak—President & CEO, Interstate Natural Gas Association of America (INGAA)

Insights from Washington, D.C.

INGAA President & CEO Amy Andryszak will provide a policy update from Washington, D.C. discussing the first few months of the new Administration as well as what is happening on Capitol Hill.

11:00 a.m. - Coffee Break & Networking

SESSION 3 — 11:15 a.m.

The LNG Option

LNG plays a vital role in ensuring energy reliability in the Northeast. How are global trends shaping this industry and impacting the Northeast?

Panelists: Alan Arneill, Repsol; Boris Brevnov, Northeast Energy Center

Moderator: Christian Rodrick, Director of Public Affairs, NGA

12:15 p.m. - Lunch Break & Networking

SESSION 4— 1:30 p.m.

Meeting Regional Demand

Northeast interstate pipelines, continue to meet increasing demand in the region. In an environment where building infrastructure is challenging, how will the region meet the need for reliable, affordable energy?

Panelists: Liz Bowman, Williams, Blair Hastey, Enbridge, Christopher Stutz, Iroquois, James McCord, Kinder Morgan

Moderator: Alana Daly, VP Communications and Public Policy, NGA

SESSION 5— 2:30 p.m.

Closing Keynote—A Fireside Chat with Danielle Powers and Melissa Bartos of Concentric Energy Advisors

Danielle Powers and Melissa Bartos will review the Forum's conversations, and what these trends mean for the industry.

3:30 p.m. Concluding Remarks José Costa, NGA

