

Bay Utility Associates

Jim Howe is the owner of Bay Utility Associates, LLC. Jim has over four decades of broad, extensive utility experience, including senior roles at National Grid, Pacific Gas and Electric, and Columbia Gas of Massachusetts.

Bay Utility Associates specializes in providing consulting and advisory services to the utility industry. Areas of support include strategic planning, organizational strategy, leadership, cultural assessment, asset risk management, investment planning, safety management systems, process ownership, regulatory strategy, and expert witness testimony.