

Compliance Everything LLC

Perry Sheth PE

Compliance Everything LLC, is a woman owned minority company. Company's managing director Perry (Parashar) Sheth is a licensed professional engineer in NY, MA & RI. Perry worked for thirty-four years in the largest natural gas and electric distribution and transmission company in the Northeast region of the USA before his recent retirement. Perry is an American Welding Society Certified Welding Inspector (CWI) and active member of API 1104, ASTM F17, AGA and GPTC committees.

Services offered by our companies are as follows:

Operations & Maintenance (O&M) Support –

- Review and development of standards, procedures, and policies to comply with the federal and state regulations. Developing electronic database for alignment of O&M procedures with federal and state regulations for aiding in O&M audit.
- Linking Operators Qualifications Covered Tasks with the O&M procedures.

Material Testing & Failure Analysis –

- Development of testing protocol for materials involved in incident or systemic failures of in-service materials.
- Expert witness for testing at third party accredited laboratory
- Preparing material specifications for procurement

Learning & Development Training Material Support –

- Developing training modules for initial and refresher training of utility and contractor employees to aid in operator qualification program
- Auditing training program effectiveness for utilities and contractors
- Auditing OQ evaluators
- Delivering training materials - virtual or in-person classroom

Website Development-

- Development of a website to house all company O&M procedures, standards, important product advisories and technical bulletins for online access for company and contractor employees' access at job sites.

Pipe joining Policies & Procedures-

- Development of best-in-class plastic joining procedure to comply with the regulations
- Development of best-in-class steel welding procedures to comply with the regulations
- Auditing of existing policies and procedures

Compliance Everything LLC

Perry Sheth PE

Pipeline Safety Management System (PSMS)-

- Aid in reviewing, auditing, and implementing PSMS programs.
- Independent field inspection to aid PSMS implementation.

Operator Qualification Program-

- Review, audit and development of effective company specific OQ program.
- Aid in developing OQ written examination and performance evaluation embedding AOC.

Non-Destructive Examination Program-

- Aid in setting up an NDE oversight program to audit NDE contractors.
- Digitization of existing X-ray films and remote review by an independent ASNT level 3 to validate NDE contractor report review
- Provide AWSCWI and ASNT LEVEL 2-3 resources for gas transmission projects.