

TRC Company Inc.

TRC Companies, Inc. is a leading global consulting, engineering, and construction management firm that offers a comprehensive range of services across various sectors. With over 50 years of experience, TRC delivers integrated solutions to public, private, and government clients.

Key Services Offered by TRC:

- Environmental Services: TRC provides environmental consulting, including air quality measurements and modeling, remediation, and natural and cultural resource management.
- Engineering Services: The firm offers engineering solutions for electrical and power systems, pipeline infrastructure, roads, highways, bridges, rail, and water projects.
- Construction Management: TRC delivers construction management services, including procurement and construction support, ensuring projects are completed safely and efficiently.
- Geospatial Solutions: The company provides geospatial services, integrating technology through GIS and IT professionals to enhance project outcomes.
- Transportation Engineering: TRC offers transportation engineering services, including traffic studies, road, bridge, and highway design, and innovative strategies to resolve congestion and enhance safety.
- Sustainability and Climate Solutions: The firm provides sustainability and climate solutions, assisting clients in adapting to environmental changes and promoting sustainable practices.

TRC's multidisciplinary approach enables them to address complex challenges across various industries, delivering tailored solutions that meet the unique needs of each client

trccompanies.com